

Beaconsfield Parade bridge works Glenrowan

6am 9 March - 6pm 11 March 2024

McConnell Dowell has been engaged by the Australian Rail Track Corporation (ARTC) to undertake construction for the Inland Rail project.

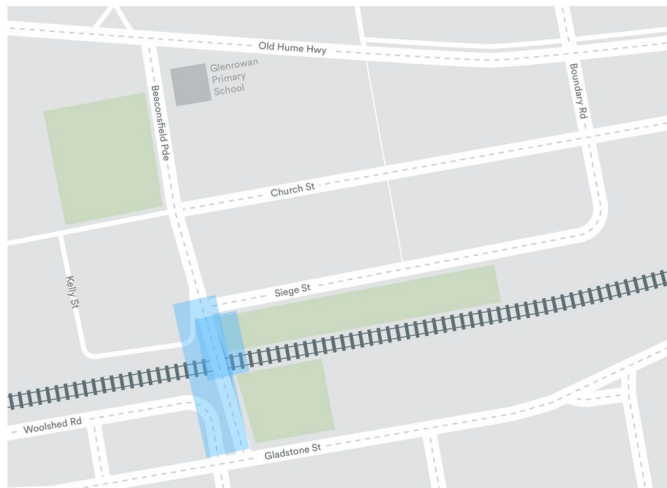

Work being done

McConnell Dowell will begin demolition of the old Beaconsfield Parade bridge in Glenrowan during a track possession between 6am Saturday 9 March and 6pm Monday 11 March.

Cranes will be used to remove the old Beaconsfield Parade bridge, which will then be demolished and moved offsite.

Installation of track drainage will also occur.

Trains will not be running during the round-the-clock works. For changes to passenger services, visit vline.com.au

Construction areas in Glenrowan between 9-11 March 2024

What can I expect?

- Round-the-clock works, 6am Saturday 9 March to 6pm Monday 11 March
- Traffic access via the new Beaconsfield Parade bridge during the works
- Heavy machinery and equipment operating onsite
- Delivery of materials and equipment
- Trucks and other vehicles entering and exiting the construction site may cause minor traffic delays
- No access to Siege Street from Beaconsfield Parade
- Limited access to the northern-end of Woolshed Road other than to local businesses and residents.
- Temporary streetlighting in place to assist pedestrians crossing the new bridge
- Use of generators and light towers during night works.

Machinery used

- Trucks, cranes, excavators, concrete trucks and pumps, loaders, and light vehicles will be used within the works area.

How we're managing impacts

- Water carts will be onsite to wet down areas to assist in managing dust
- Traffic controls will be in place, where required, including Variable Message Signage (VMS) boards
- Live monitoring of noise, dust, and vibration
- Directing light towers away from residential properties.

Thank you for your patience and cooperation while we carry out these works.

For any concerns or enquiries phone 1800 929 244 or email victoriaprojects@artc.com.au or talk to the team in the ARTC Marquee located at Lions Park throughout the track possession
