

Beaconsfield Parade bridge works Glenrowan February 2024

UPDATED WORK HOURS

McConnell Dowell has been engaged by the Australian Rail Track Corporation (ARTC) to undertake construction for the Inland Rail project.

Work being done

McConnell Dowell will continue constructing the new Beaconsfield Parade bridge in Glenrowan during February.

Works include the installation of barriers, approach ramps, road base, asphalt and linemarking.

Drainage and footpath works will continue.

- Construction areas in Glenrowan during February 2024

Talk to the team: The ARTC Inland Rail and McConnell Dowell team will be at the Glenrowan Bakehouse on Monday 26 February, 12pm-2pm to answer any questions.

What can I expect?

- Works will occur 7am-7pm weekdays and 7am-5pm Saturdays
- Sunday works on 18 February 7am-5pm
- Construction noise during the day
- Heavy machinery and equipment operating onsite
- Delivery of materials and equipment
- Trucks and other vehicles entering and exiting the construction site may cause minor traffic delays
- Beaconsfield Parade bridge reduced to one lane with traffic lights and speed reduction to manage traffic flow
- Beaconsfield Parade closed between Siege Street and Church Street, including the footpath with a pedestrian detour in place
- Limited access to the northern end of Woolshed Road other than to local businesses and residents.

Machinery used

- Trucks, cranes, excavators, rollers, concrete trucks and pumps, loaders and light vehicles will be used within the works area.

How we're managing impacts

- Water carts will be onsite to wet down areas to assist in managing dust
- Traffic controls will be in place, where required, including Variable Message Signage (VMS) boards
- Live monitoring of noise, dust and vibration
- Pedestrian crossing lights have been installed on the corner of Siege Street and Beaconsfield Parade to allow safe crossing of the road.

Thank you for your patience and cooperation while we carry out these works.
